

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
UNIVERSITY OF TSUKUBA, JAPAN
AND
LA UNIVERSIDAD DE CHILE, REPUBLIC OF CHILE

University of Tsukuba, Japan, represented by its President Dr. NAGATA Kyosuke, and University of Chile, Republic of Chile, represented by its Rector Prof. Rosa Devés Alessandri, hereby propose to foster academic exchange and cooperation between the two institutions.

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to foster and promote cooperation between the Parties, in order to jointly undertake academic, scientific and cultural activities in areas of common interest.
2. The two institutions will encourage the following activities in particular:
 - Exchange of teachers and researchers
 - Exchange of faculty and staff
 - Exchange of graduate and /or undergraduate students
 - Joint research activities and publications
 - Joint curriculum development projects
 - Joint co-supervision of PhD theses
 - Participation in seminars and academic meetings
 - Exchange of academic materials and other information
 - Short-term academic programmes (internship and other modalities agreed by both parties)
3. These activities are to be carried out after mutual consultation between the two institutions or the divisions concerned thereof. Each institution will sign an agreement setting out the responsibilities of each institution for the agreed activity and such other matters both institutions deemed necessary for the efficient achievement of the activity.
4. Amendment of this Memorandum is to take effect upon written agreement from both institutions. Any amendment or revision will come into effect when both institutions have agreed in writing to this amendment or revision. Either Institution may terminate this Agreement in advance, without expression of cause, by written notice given six (6) months prior to the expiration date. In the event of early termination, the Parties shall take the necessary measures to avoid damages to themselves and to third parties, in the understanding that the actions or activities already initiated shall continue until their due conclusion.

Any notification should be addressed as follows:

7. It is hereby stated that the agreement and all documents and information shared by one party to the other, directly or indirectly related to the commitment, will be treated as confidential information, which may not be used except for the purposes for which it has been shared and may not be disclosed to any other person without prior agreement of the parties, without prejudice to due compliance with the requirements arising from Republic of Chile's Law No. 20,285, on access to public information, or other legal or regulatory provisions applicable to the species.
8. When fire, disaster, terrorism, severe infectious diseases, and other risks occur in the area, the two parties shall cooperate with one another, and the host institution shall promptly share the safety status of the dispatched person with the home institution.
9. The two parties agree to adhere to and comply with applicable export control laws and regulations. Each party shall understand that only after obtaining all necessary export authorizations and licenses will any export-controlled tangible item or technology be allowed to be exported or transferred.
10. Regarding personal information obtained and managed by each of the parties, both shall agree to comply with the laws and regulations concerning the protection of personal information that apply in both countries.
11. Concerning the interpretation and enforcement of this Memorandum, the parties shall resolve possible disagreements through negotiations to reach mutual understanding.
12. This Agreement has been executed simultaneously in two (2) counterparts in English. Agreements signed by electronic means shall likewise be deemed as duly concluded.
